

Content warning for A Beginner's Guide to the Night Sky

Our performance of A Beginner's Guide to the Night Sky at the Chester Playhouse involves the following technical elements:

- A capella singing
- Nighttime performances
- LED illumination and lights
- Dialogue in English and French

This production involves the following content that may be triggering to some individuals.

REFERENCES TO:

- stargazing, sight, and looking at the sky with bare eyes and binoculars
- memory
- things disappearing slowly until nothing is left
- high school
- drinking wine
- meteors hitting the earth
- being an architecture student
- loss
- unimaginable remoteness and the vastness of outer space
- implied death

DEPICTIONS OF:

- Mother/adult child relationships and conflict
- Physical and verbal violence from an ill parent to an adult child
- Accusations of theft
- Grief and mourning
- A parent trying to honour her child's nonbinary gender identity
- Neurological illness that presents like early-onset dementia
- Urn/scattering of ashes

If you have any concerns or questions, or if you would like to chat about the content of the play, please reach out to info@villainstheatre.com.